NOTABLE CASES

- Railroad Counterclaim for Property Damage in FELA Case. Successfully obtained discretionary review and a reversal in the Illinois Supreme Court for Wisconsin Central in a case upholding the right of the railroad to assert a counterclaim for property damage in a FELA case. Ammons v. Wisconsin Central, Ltd., 2019 IL 1244454.
- City of Chicago Extraterritorial Car Rental Tax. Successfully obtained discretionary review in the Illinois Supreme Court and ultimately prevailed on a constitutional challenge to a City of Chicago extraterritorial rental car tax.
- Mayor Rahm Emanuel. Successfully defended challenge to then-candidate Rahm Emanuel’s eligibility to run for Mayor of Chicago.
- Price v. Philip Morris. Served on team of appellate counsel in successful appeal reversing $12 billion judgment that had been entered against Philip Morris.
- 527 S. Clinton, LLC v. Westloop Equities, LLC. Served as appellate and trial counsel (on remand) in an easement dispute, obtaining reversal of a judgment that would have effectively made a valuable piece of property in Chicago’s South Loop unbuildable.
- Guvenoz v. Target Corporation and Teva Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc. Served as appellate counsel for the plaintiff in an appeal involving a products liability lawsuit brought against a generic drug manufacturer and distributor that asserted federal conflict preemption defenses. The Illinois Appellate Court rejected those defenses; the Illinois Supreme Court denied leave to appeal, and the U.S. Supreme Court denied the petition for writ of certiorari after requesting a response. This case was one of the first in the United States to reject a federal preemption defense raised by a generic drug manufacturer.
- Certain Underwriters at Lloyd’s London v. Abbott Laboratories. Served as appellate counsel in an appeal from an $84.5 million judgment entered against the Lloyd’s insurers who sought to rescind product recall insurance policies on grounds that Abbott made material misrepresentations in its insurance application regarding potential risks. While the judgment was affirmed, we successfully defended the insurers on a vexatious delay claim, which would have added an additional $41 million in recovery.

- Holz v. Makray Memorial Golf Club. Served as appellate and trial counsel (on remand) for the defendant, obtaining reversal of a judgment that would have required the defendant to incur significant expenses in modifying a $20 million redesign of a golf course.
